

Oversight of Non-Instructional Staff Evaluations

The Principal shall be the person primarily responsible for administering the evaluation of non-instructional staff and presenting such evaluations to the Director. Procedures and criteria for evaluation of non-instructional staff shall be established and reviewed periodically by the Director in consultation with the Principal. The Principal's evaluation skills shall be a part of the Principal's formal evaluation by the Director, and the Director shall seek evidence that the non-instructional staff evaluations are conducted in a fair, professional, and credible manner.
