

Oversight of Professional Staff Evaluations

The Principal shall be the person primarily responsible for administering the evaluation of professional staff and presenting such evaluations to the Board of Directors. Procedures and criteria for evaluation of professional staff shall be established and reviewed periodically by the TPCA Board of Directors in consultation with the Principal. The Principal's evaluation skills shall be a part of the Principal's formal evaluation by the Board of Directors, and the Board shall seek evidence that the professional staff evaluations are conducted in a fair, professional, and credible manner.
